

Consent To Extend the Time To Assess Tax Under Section 367—Gain Recognition Agreement

OMB No. 1545-1395

Attachment
Sequence No. 145

▶ Attach to your income tax return.

Name(s) of consenting taxpayer(s)

Identifying number (see instructions)

Social security number of spouse (only if a joint income tax return was filed)

Number, street, and room or suite no. (If a P.O. box, see instructions.)

City or town, state, and ZIP code

The taxpayer(s) listed above and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, pursuant to the regulations under section 367, agree to the following:

1 The amount of any Federal income tax due relating to the transfer described in item 5, below, on any income tax return made by or for the above taxpayer(s) for the tax year ended _____, _____, _____, may be
month day year
assessed at any time on or before _____, _____, _____, (expiration date—see instructions).
month day year

2 This consent establishes an extended period for assessing tax. The expiration of the extended period may be suspended or otherwise affected by the operation of law in the same manner as the original period. For example, if a notice of deficiency in tax covered by this consent is issued, the period for assessing tax will not end prior to the end of the suspension period provided for by section 6503(a), plus any time that remains in the assessment period, as extended, at the time the suspension takes effect. Under no circumstances will this consent reduce the period of time otherwise provided by law for making an assessment.

3 The consenting taxpayer(s) may file a claim for credit or refund for the tax assessed by reason of this consent within 6 months after the period ends for assessing tax established by this consent.

4 The amount of any deficiency assessment covered by this consent will be limited to the amount of any Federal income tax due relating to the recognition of gain on the transfer described in item 5, including any consequential changes to other items based on that adjustment.

Purpose of Form

Form 8838 (or a similar statement providing the same information) must be used for gain recognition agreements under sections 367(a) and 367(e)(2).

For more information about transfers of stock and securities to a foreign corporation described in section 367(a), see Regulations sections 1.367(a)-3(b), 1.367(a)-3(c), and 1.367(a)-8. For information about a liquidation of a domestic subsidiary into a foreign parent under section 332, see Regulations section 367(e)(2).

Form 8838 must be filed as an attachment to the U.S. person's income tax return for the tax year the transfer is made.

Consent to extend the time to assess tax. Although you are not required to extend the period of limitations under the terms and conditions provided in this form, failure to do so in a timely manner will invalidate the gain recognition agreement and the transfer of property will be treated as a taxable exchange as required by Regulations section 1.367(a)-8(c).

Who Must File

A United States transferor must file Form 8838 (or a similar statement) if it enters into a gain recognition agreement pursuant to section 367(a) with respect to the transferred property.

For purposes of section 367(a), the term "United States transferor" includes:

- A citizen or resident of the United States.
- A domestic corporation.
- A U.S. citizen, resident, or domestic corporation that is directly or indirectly a partner in a domestic or foreign partnership that transfers property to a foreign corporation. See Temporary Regulations section 1.367(a)-1T(c)(3).
- Any estate or trust (other than a foreign estate or trust under section 7701(a)(31)).

In the case of an exchange described in section 361(a) or 361(b) that is subject to section 367(a)(5), see Regulations section 1.367(a)-8(f)(2)(i).

The domestic corporation and distributee foreign corporation must file Form 8838 (or a similar statement) if a gain recognition agreement under section 367(e)(2) is entered into.

Specific Instructions

Identifying Number

The identifying number of an individual is the social security number. For all other taxpayers, it is the employer identification number.

Address

Include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the transferor has a P.O. box, show the box number instead.

Line 1

The correct expiration date to be entered on line 1 depends on the type of distribution involved.

Distributions under section 367(a). A U.S. transferor must agree to extend the statute on transfers described in section 367(a) for at least 8 tax years following the tax year of the transfer.

Liquidations under section 367(e)(2). Domestic liquidating corporations and foreign distributee corporations must agree to extend the statute for liquidations described in section 367(e)(2) for at least 3 years after the date on which all items of property distributed to the foreign distributee are no longer used in a trade or business within the United States. However, the period of extension may not exceed 13 years from the filing of the original U.S. income tax return for the tax year of the last distribution of any item of property included in the liquidation.

Signature

This consent must be signed by a trustee, executor, or equivalent fiduciary in the case of a trust or estate, by a responsible officer in the case of a corporation, by a debtor or trustee in a bankruptcy case under title 11, United States Code, or by an individual in the case of an individual transferor.

Joint Returns. If this consent is made for any year for which a joint income tax return is filed, both husband and wife must sign Form 8838 unless one, acting under a power of attorney, signs as an agent for the other.

Corporation. If the taxpayer is a corporation, a responsible officer of the corporation must sign the return and show his or her title. Affiliated groups filing a consolidated income tax return should see Regulations section 1.1502-77 for rules about a common parent signing as an agent for subsidiaries and alternative agents for affiliated groups. Also see Regulations section 1.367(a)-8(a)(3).

Attorney or Agent. If you are an attorney or agent of the taxpayer(s), you may sign this consent if that action is specifically authorized by a power of attorney. You must include a copy of Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, with Form 8838.

Fiduciaries. If you are acting as a fiduciary (such as an executor, administrator, trustee, etc.) and you sign this consent, you must attach a copy of Form 56, Notice Concerning Fiduciary Relationship.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their content may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.
